ABOUT PER HILLO:

www.perhillo.com

By Ole Lindboe, Chief editor at the magazine Art, writer of several art books and editor for the TV-show "Art in the Eye"

Per Hillo is quite the phenomenon

He is a Danish artist who is doing very well. Big decoration assignments; one for a hotel in Dubai, a gigantic painting for the Headquarters of Copenhagen Energy in the new Ørestad, a CD cover in memory of legendary musician Niels Henning Ørsted Pedersen, and recently, a huge decoration assignment with more than 20 large scale paintings for the new headquarters of The Forstaedernes Bank at kalvebod Brygge in Copenhagen.

As artist he must be categorized as an expressive one. He expresses what he feels. He says: Art must touch its receiver. Art must involve its viewer. He seeks the emotional. My art is all about communication, and the way we choose to be together, he says. Per Hillo attempts to find a way to a harmonic interplay between art and people. The destructivity, which is to be found in contemporary art, is not his errand at all. He makes an honour in creating beautiful paintings, which speaks to the best in the viewer. With his paintings, Per Hillo points at the dreamy and sensational.

This can not be explained because one can way to easily talk art to death. Rather one should slow down and meditate over the extent in the painting. Because every painting is an expression for consciousness and feeling. Is this to be understood, one has reached the first step in sensing the figurative world of per Hillo.
